

For our client, a global trading company with offices 80 different petrochemicals and energy products worldwide. The product range includes biofuels, petrochemicals, petroleum products and gas.

To support the Operations team at our headquarters in Zug, we are looking for a person to join as

Sr. Traffic Operator and Team Leader, 100%

Your responsibilities: Include team management, storage management, scheduling, blend optimization, P&L calculations and full logistic overview. You will work closely together with the members of the Operations team, the Biofuels traders as well as with the members of our Risk Management team.

Your profile: Knowledge of European renewable standards and associated sustainability schemes such as ISCC / RED CERT or similar is preferred. Have been a Biofuels Operator in an international trading company for at least 5 years with team leadership experience, comfortable with the advanced use of Excel spreadsheets, good use of business English strong and clear communication skills. The right candidate will be capable of building working relationships in an international environment, will be self-motivated and a results-oriented problem solver.

If you are of the opinion, you can handle the described responsibilities and meet the profile requirements, want to become part of a team-oriented, young and dynamic organization with a flat hierarchy, where your contribution will be recognized and rewarded, you are invited to contact us. Kindly send your current CV in English together with your references, diplomas and permit copy in confidence to the following email address:

monika.zanella@mz-personal.ch