

For our client a active trading company, we are looking for the office in the Zurich, Switzerland for the expansion of trade a

Trading Trainee Industry Minerals

Responsibilities:

- Managing existing relationships, set up and expand new contacts
- Identifying trading potentials and working out proposals
- Negotiation of contract terms with trading partners
- Drafting/issuance of contracts
- Close cooperation with Middle-Office/Logistics department to ensure smooth contract execution
- Updating internal sales/trading-systems on a regular basis

Desired Skills & Experience

- Completed studies, KV graduate (bank or industry with practices in the field of trade)
- Self-driven, excellent communication skills, both internally and externally
- Ability to identify communication and transforming them to results
- High ability for networked thinking
- Excellent written and oral skills in English is a must, other language is an advantage
- Very good IT skills
- Service oriented, pro-active

Our client offer a dynamic, innovative and challenging environment. We ask for a high flexibility from you and in return a offer a high degree of autonomy.

Please send your CV with diplomas and work references to Monika Zanella